Re: FOX, RICKY D. v. VICE, BILLY R., ET AL., No. 10-114

Counsel:

I write with regard to the above-captioned matter, and with specific regard to the parties’ Joint Appendix to be submitted in this case. As I indicated by phone to Mr. Stamey and Mr. Guidry, I think it would be productive for the parties to agree to extend the time period during which agreement must be reached in determining the contents of a Joint Appendix. In the interest of efficiency and of limiting the burden on the Court and the parties of a lengthy appendix, we therefore propose a stipulation to provide more time for the parties to discuss the parameters of record materials to be submitted to the Court and how those materials should be identified.

In the alternative, I have set forth below an initial list of materials for inclusion in the parties’ Joint Appendix, pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 26. For convenience, materials are identified by reference to the record citations used in the parties’ briefing before the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals. We also intend to include any additional record materials necessary to identify the documents designated below (e.g., deposition cover pages). If you do not wish to stipulate to an extension of the time period during which the parties can agree on the contents of a Joint Appendix, please let me know whether there are additional materials you wish to counter-designate.

I can speak for both defendants with respect to these issues. If my memory serves, Josh and I agreed that your brief would be due Dec. 23, our brief Feb. 1. I'd be happy to discuss the joint appendix at your convenience, although it would probably behoove me to get a little deeper into the case first. Mark Miller had mentioned the possibility of seeking to defer the JA, which is fine with me if we think the Court will go along.

Best,

Mark

Mr. Stancil:

I work with Josh Rosenkranz at Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe, and wanted to ask whether you will be representing both defendants in the Fox v. Vice case before the Supreme Court. I have previously reached out to and been in conversation with Messrs. Miller and Ieyoub to discuss whether a suggestion of death will be filed at the court and how the case ought to be styled following Mr. Vice's unfortunate passing. I have also asked each whether they would agree to a two-week extension for the briefing. I understand that you have already spoken with Josh and agreed on behalf of Mr. Vice to split the extension between plaintiff and defendants, but wanted to confirm that you are in a position to speak for both defendant parties so that we can make a formal request to the Court with the consent of all parties.

We should also, at your convenience, discuss the filing of a joint appendix in this case.

Thank you for your time. I look forward to hearing from you and working with you.

As you may be aware, I'm told that Billy Ray Vice passed away a couple of months ago. Have you guys given any thought as to how to proceed under S.Ct. Rule 35 in light of this? Also, where do we stand on the JA? I think we'd left it that we'd reconvene about the contents, but I wanted to touch base. Thanks,

Mark

First, please let me know your thoughts on the attached.

Second, thanks for the heads-up on the Notice of Removal, Opposition to Partial Summary Judgment, and Motions for Summary Judgment. Will you be troubled if, in response, we stick in our full papers moving for partial summary judgment and our briefing in response to the memos you've added? I think we'd also like the option of putting in Chief Vice's memo in opposition to motion for summary judgment filed by Shelter Mutual Insurance (Oct. 9 2007) (careful -- I think this one's misprinted MEMORANDUM OF PLAINTIFF).

Let me know your thoughts.

_Counsel for Petitioner_

With the consent of all parties, Petitioner Ricky D. Fox, by and through his attorneys, respectfully suggests upon the record, pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 35, the death of Respondent Billy Ray Vice on August 26, 2010 during the pendency of this action.

No representative of the deceased Respondent has come forward for substitution as a party. But the case is still alive because Petitioner remains burdened by the order requiring him to pay attorneys’ fees, and at least one Respondent, the Town of Vinton, seeks to collect those fees.

Accordingly, the parties agree that the Court need not substitute any party for the time being.

Respectfully submitted,

E. Joshua Rosenkranz
