STATEMENT OF THE CASE

In Abood v. Detroit Board of Education, 431 U.S. 209, 232 (1977), the Court declared that "agency shop" arrangements are lawful, so long as service fees collected by unions are used for collective-bargaining, contract administration, and grievance-adjustment purposes. The Court further held that the First Amendment precludes school district employers and unions from compelling an employee to contribute to an ideological cause he may oppose as a condition to holding a position as a public school teacher. Id. at 235. Based on two recent decisions, Knox v. Service Employees International Union, Local 1000, 132 S. Ct. 2277 (2012) and Harris v. Quinn, 134 S. Ct. 2618 (2014), Petitioners challenge the Abood decision and request that the Court grant certiorari to this case. The California Teachers Association ("CTA"), the National Education Association ("NEA"), and the individual local affiliates oppose this request.

As the Superintendent of Jurupa Unified School District ("District"), Respondent Elliott Duchon's interests in this matter are limited. Respondent Duchon acknowledges the potential anomaly created by the Court's dicta in Knox and Harris. However, there is no clear judicial precedent on which Respondent Duchon could rely to refuse to implement the agency fee provision of the current collective bargaining agreement between the District and the NEA-Jurupa. Consequently, the District complies with the mandates of the Education Employment Relations Act ("EERA"), which governs its employment relationship with its employees and establishes an "agency shop" arrangement, and will continue to do so unless the law is found to be unconstitutional or the law is amended through the California legislative process.

POSITION OF ELLIOTT DUCHON

The EERA governs employer-employee relationships in the California public school system. Employees are afforded the right to "form, join, and participate in the activities of employee organizations of their choosing for the purpose of representation on all matters of employer-employee relations." CAL. GOV'T CODE § 3543(a). The EERA establishes procedures for public school employees to identify an exclusive representative to meet and negotiate with their public school employer. CAL. GOV'T CODE §§ 3544-3544.9.

Once an exclusive representative is established, the public school employer is required to "deduct the fair share service fee" from each unit member's salary and pay the amount to the exclusive representative. CAL. GOV'T CODE § 3546(a). Each unit member must either join the established organization or pay the fair share service fee. Id. The "fair share service fee" is designed to "cover the cost of negotiation, contract administration, and other activities of the employee organization that are germane to its functions as the exclusive bargaining representative." Id.

Individual employees who, for religious reasons, object to "joining or financially supporting employee organizations" are exempt from contributing a fair share service fee to the established organization. CAL. GOV'T CODE § 3546.3. However, these employees must pay an amount equal to the fair share service fee to a non-religious, non-labor, charitable organization. Id. The employer or organization may require proof of such payments on an annual basis. Id.

As a public school employer, the EERA governs the District's labor relations with its employees. Certain District employees identified the NEA-Jurupa as their exclusive representative. Appendix 1, Article I. The District and the NEA-Jurupa negotiated a collective bargaining agreement to govern their employer-employee relationship. Pursuant to the EERA and the collective bargaining agreement, the District deducts union dues and/or fair share service fees from unit member salary warrants. Appendix 1, Article IV. The collective bargaining agreement affords unit members the opportunity to "opt out" from joining or financially supporting NEA-J for religious reasons. Such unit members are required to pay a sum equal to the fair share service fee to a non-religious, non-labor, charitable organization. Appendix 1, Article IV, Section 12.

Pursuant to California Government Code section 3546, subsection (e), the collective bargaining agreement, also contains a hold harmless clause whereby NEA-J must indemnify and hold the District harmless against any liability resulting from the deduction of union dues, the fair share service fees, or the charitable donation on behalf of the unit member. Appendix 1, Article IV, Section 15. The above-described provisions of the District's collective bargaining agreement comply with the EERA. The District will continue to comply with the current mandates of the EERA, unless such mandates are found to be unconstitutional by the Court or the law is amended through the California legislative process.

Due to his limited interest in this matter, on June 20, 2013, Respondent Duchon and Petitioners filed a "Stipulation Regarding the Participation of Defendant Elliott Duchon" with the Central District of California, Southern Division, whereby Respondent Duchon agreed not to: (1) file a responsive pleading to the Complaint for Declaratory and Injunctive Relief filed by Petitioners; and, (2) oppose Petitioner's claims. Appendix 3. The Honorable Josephine Staton Tucker, United States District Judge, signed the proposed order granting the stipulation on June 24, 2013. Appendix 2. Consequently, Respondent Duchon did not file a responsive pleading in the Central District of California, took no part in the proceeding before the Ninth Circuit, and files this limited response pursuant to the Court's request.

The Respondent Duchon, and the school district he serves, respects the right of employees to "form, join, and participate in the activities of employee organizations of their choosing for the purpose of representation on all matters of employer-employee relations." CAL. GOV'T CODE § 3543(a). Similarly, Respondent Duchon and the District respect the First Amendment rights of employees. Respondent Duchon and the District will continue to abide by the mandates of the EERA until such time that the Court finds that the law is unconstitutional or the California Legislature amends the requirements and procedures contained therein.

CONCLUSION

Pursuant to the signed Proposed Order Granting Stipulation Regarding the Participation of Defendant Elliott Duchon, Respondent Duchon does not oppose Petitioner's claims and makes no specific requests of this Court.

Any unit member who is a member of a religious body whose traditional tenets or teachings include objections to joining or financially supporting employee organizations shall not be required to join, maintain membership in, or financially support the Association as a condition of employment. Such unit member shall be required, in lieu of a service fee, to pay sums equal to such service

Proof of payment shall be in the form of an authorized payroll deduction, or in the form of receipts and/or canceled checks indicating the amount paid, date of payment, and to whom payment in lieu of service fee has been made. Such proof shall be made within thirty (30) days of ratification of this Agreement and within thirty (30) days of the beginning of the unit member's work year thereafter.

representatives of the District against any and all claims, demands, suits or other forms of liability, including but not limited to, wages, damages, judgments, fees, fines, court costs, attorney fees, and any back pay, penalties or awards resulting from any court, arbitrator or PERB order, judgment or settlement which may arise by reason of, or resulting from the operation of this Article. Upon commencement of such legal action, the Association shall have the exclusive right to decide and determine whether any claim, liability, suit or judgment made or brought against the District or Association because of such action shall or shall not be compromised, resisted, defended, tried, or appealed. The Association's decision thereon shall be final and binding upon all parties protected by this Section. This paragraph shall not be construed as a waiver on the part of the District, Board of Education or any individual protected by this Section of any claim against the Association for failing to act in good faith in settling a claim or any failure to competently defend and hold them harmless, or in cases where the Association seeks redress for the District's alleged failure to comply with the operation of this Article.

Within ten (10) days of proper service of a claim, demand, suit, or other legal action against any protected party, the District shall inform the Association and provide the Association with copies of any documents received as a result of the legal action. Upon request, the District shall provide the Association's legal counsel with documents and information reasonably related to providing a defense. Section 15 - Meet and Confer. The District and the Association agree to meet monthly to discuss items of mutual concern. Such discussions shall not supplant negotiations between the Parties on items within the scope of bargaining.
